

Privacy Policy

How we use your data.

Your privacy is important to us. This policy outlines the information we collect, how we use it and your choices regarding that information.

Information We Collect

We collect information you provide directly to us. This may include your name, names of your family members, household demographics, birthdates, email address, phone number, address and other relevant information that helps us provide quality service to you. We do not collect social security numbers or immigration status. Your information is considered confidential and will not be disclosed without permission. We also automatically collect information about your use of our website through cookies and web beacons. This may include pages you've visited, links you've clicked and your IP address. We use this information to improve your experience on our site.

How We Use Information

We use the information we collect to provide high quality programs and services to your family, operate our business, and meet data reporting requirements of our funding partners. We will not sell or share your personally identifiable information with third parties without your explicit consent. The main ways we may use your information include:

- Communicating with you about your participation in programs and services
- Improving our programs, services and website
- Managing your membership and providing support
- Reporting aggregate (non-identifiable) data to funding partners
- Delivering marketing communications, with your consent

Confidentiality

All client records shall be kept confidential. Under no circumstances will any information be released to a third party without a valid signed release. Violations of this policy are to be reported to the Executive Director or appropriate Board Member as soon as they are known. Violations of this policy will be subject to investigation and disciplinary action, up to and including termination

Your Choices

You may opt-out of receiving marketing emails from us by following the unsubscribe instructions in those emails or texts.

Changes to this Policy

We may modify this policy from time to time and will post an updated version. We encourage you to review this policy periodically.
